Technician Incentive Awards

Subject: Incentive Awards Given to Technicians

References:

NGB TPR 451

OMD TPR 451 Supplement

Eligibility: Current National Guard (NG) Technicians in an Active Pay Technician Status

Effective Date: 8 March 2006

Use: In an effort to ensure compliance with the intent of NGB TPR 451 and OMD TPR 451 Supplement, technicians can receive Technician Incentive Awards (i.e., Time-Off Awards, Sustained Superior Performance Awards, Quality Step Increase Awards, etc) for a period of service that the technician is in an active technician pay status. For example, technicians cannot receive a Technician Incentive Award for a period of service when the technician is in an LWOP, LWOP-US or any other leave status for the majority of the period of service of the award. The intent of the Technician Incentive Award Program is to recognize and motivate technicians for acts of superior service or personal accomplishments while performing technician duties in an active paid technician status. This Information Letter does not change the other requirements explained in OMD TPR 451 Supplement for the approval of Technician Incentive Awards.
