

Air National Guard Additional Instructions for NGB 34-1

IAW ANGI 36-101 (Air National Guard Active Guard Reserve Program) applications will include the NGB 34-1, Application for Active Guard Reserve (AGR) Position. This form is used by the ARNG and the ANG so we have to adjust it to fit our purposes.

1. In the first area MOS (ARMY Specialty) is where ANG members will put there AFSC.
2. If you need additional space for Section I – Education and Special Qualification, Section II – Employment History or Section III – Military History you may include a continuation sheet or Resume. Both are acceptable.
3. In Section III – Military History, Item 1 AC is Active Component, ARNG is ANG Component and RC is Reserve Component.
4. Continuation sheet example is attached.
